

THE FUTURE OF ARMY TRAINING

WHAT IS ATIS LEARNING?

ATIS Learning is a centralized training system, allowing training NCOs, training managers, instructors, unit commanders and individual users to schedule, register and deliver standardized Army training to Soldiers and DA Civilians at home and abroad. Users can register for and complete self-paced courses via the web.

WHAT DOES ATIS LEARNING DO?

- Provide centralized access to training information anytime, anywhere including educational and professional instruction
- Create a single integrated set of applications to schedule training resources that include classrooms, ranges, supplies, and individual/unit training
- Facilitate streamlined management and delivery of training content across digital channels
- Foster real-time visibility and management of training enablers and resources

WHY ATIS LEARNING?

- Soldier's and DA Civilians will use ATIS to view their entire Individual Training Record and identify self-development opportunities
- Unit Commanders will use ATIS to plan training and assess unit training readiness
- Leaders will use ATIS to show the training common operational picture
